

Seems everytime something good comes out for the people. Someone tries to squash it into the ground. This is a vital service to me and many other drivers. When I am in need of information as I travel from city to city, it is had to get the information over AM/FM when I need it. Nor do I know what station to tune to. With my XM I know what channel to tune to for this much needed information.

Donald Young